MOTHER, FOUR CHILDREN AND ENGINEER OF BARGE LOST OFF ISLES OF SHOALS

Ship Sprung Leak and Sunk in Five Minutes--Captain and Mate Saved--Put in at Rye Beach Coast Guard Station

DROWNED
MOTHER, FOUR CHILDREN.....
Engineer Albert Lent of Perth Amboy.
Mrs. Gray, wife of Capt. Gray, Perth Amboy.
Four children, youngest 6 months; oldest, 8 years.

SAVED
Captain William Gray, Perth Amboy.
Mate Allan McDougall, Perth Amboy.

The barge Nanticoke, in tow of the tug Triton of New York, sprang a leak when three miles off the Isles of Shoals at 1 o'clock this morning and sank within five minutes, with the loss of six lives, engineer, Albert Lent; Mrs. Gray, wife of the captain, and her four children, the youngest 6 months and the oldest 8 years.

At the time of the sinking the tug had two other barges, the Nantux and the Oxford, in line ahead of the Nanticoke.
About 1 o'clock Captain William Gray and a mate, Allen McDougall, discovered the barge sinking at the stern. The captain rushed to the sleeping quarters of his wife and children under the pilot house, while McDougall was getting one of the life boats ready. Before the wife and children could be gotten out of their berth the barge sank, disappearing below the surface in less than five minutes. The engineer was below at the time and the captain or mate could get no word to him as they had just time to get into the boat and row.

Vigorous Military Measures will be Result of German Refusal to Sign Treaty--Plan Drastic Blockade to Enforce Demands.

20,000 TEXTILE WORKERS SEEK MORE MONEY

(By Associated Press)
Manchester, N. H., May 15.—A request for an increase of 15 per cent in wages to go into effect June 2d was sent to the cotton mills of this city by the local textile council of the United Textile Workers of America today. The mill operatives here, numbering 20,000, received a general advance last year and a 18-hour week a few weeks ago.

EVERETT MILLS WILL START NEXT MONDAY

Lawrence, Mass., May 15.—The Everett mills which closed down a few days after the textile strike began on February 3, will reopen next Monday, it is announced.

(By Associated Press)
Vigorous measures that will be an immediate result of a refusal of the Germans to sign the peace treaty have been planned by the council of four, Marshal Foch, commander in chief of the allied armies, is now on the Rhine front and dispatches state that he will take such action as is necessary in the event of the failure of the enemy to sign the treaty. An immediate economic blockade of Germany is also planned as a part of the program in case continued hostile action is considered necessary.

Germany has met with another setback from the council of four in the effort to secure alterations in the peace treaty by setting forth objections in a series of notes.

The council has refused to consider the note sent by the Germans regarding international labor legislation.

Paris, May 15.—The Austrian peace terms probably will be presented to the Austrian delegation next Wednesday. It is understood that the famous Skoda works and other armament plants will be ordered dismantled.

The Skoda armament works were to the former dual monarchy what the Krupp plant was to Germany. Factories are located at Vienna and Prague. Large calibre Skoda howitzers were among the most effective guns used by the central empires in the war.

WOULD SEE AMERICANS, NOT AGITATORS

(By Associated Press)
London, Wednesday, May 14.—Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the House of Commons, admitted today that Premier Lloyd George had asked Frank J. Walsh, Edward Dinnio and Michael P. Ryan, representatives of Irish Societies in the United States to call on him, as he thought it would interest in Ireland to be received by him. The Premier has now withdrawn the invitation, according to the government leader, because while he is willing to receive Americans, he is unwilling to receive those who "came to Ireland and not only took part in the politics of Ireland but also in the rebellious movements."

WILSON HAS LITTLE TO SAY TO CONGRESS

The balloon had been in the air for 25 hours and forty minutes. The C-5 reached the Qudividi anchorage at 9:45 a. m. New York time. The start was Montauk Point at 8 a. m. yesterday. Portsmouth, N. H., Thursday, May 15, 1919.

All Up for the Boy Scouts.

There will be general interest among old and young in President Wilson's proclamation calling upon the people of the country to observe the week beginning June 8 as Boy Scout Week. The President asks that this be done for the purpose of strengthening the work of the Boy Scouts of America, whose activities since the organization was formed a few years ago have been of a character to commend them to all thoughtful people, and especially to those who have in mind the welfare of the boys of the country and what that welfare means to the country in the years to come.

In his proclamation President Wilson calls attention to what the Boy Scouts have done during the period of the war. "They have," he says, "done effective work in the Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns, in discovering and reporting upon the black walnut supply, in co-operating with the Red Cross and other war work agencies, in acting as dispatch bearers for the common public information and in other important fields. The Boy Scouts have not only demonstrated their worth to the nation, but have also materially contributed to a deeper appreciation by the American people of the higher conception of patriotism and good citizenship."

Those familiar with the work of the Boy Scouts know all this to be true. The valiant young members of the organization have never shirked any duty which it was in their power to perform, and they have made themselves very helpful in numberless ways during the trying period of the war. In performing such duties as fall to them they not only show a generous and helpful spirit, but are fitting themselves for the duties that will come to them in later years. In other words, they are fitting themselves for good American citizenship.

In view of the ends sought through a proper observance of Boy Scout Week there should be a cheerful compliance with President Wilson's call for co-operation on the part of citizens in carrying out a program for the definite recognition of the effective services rendered by the Boy Scouts of America. He invites the co-operation of churches, schools and other organizations definitely engaged in work for boys, and urges men to join in large numbers as associate members of the Boy Scouts, as there is much work, financial and otherwise, that men can do to further the interests of the organization.

It is an organization deserving of every encouragement. Its members are brought under good influences, are taught lessons in manliness and obedience to duty, and they receive impressions that will be life-lasting. They will be better men because of the influences under which they are brought as Boy Scouts, and the country will be the gainer as surely as high moral character is the bedrock of an upright and prosperous nation.

It is to be hoped there will be a widespread response to the President's call for a proper observance of Boy Scout Week. Those who take part may rest assured that their labors will not be wasted, but will prove the very best kind of investment.

Some of the merchants of the city are predicting that the time will come when the stores will be closed Saturday afternoons, as most other kinds of business are. That would be a decided departure from old-time custom, but it is one that is liable to come, strange as the idea may now seem.

The people of the city may as well be preparing to face the stiffest tax rate in the history of Portsmouth, but they will not be alone in the experience. Most of the cities and towns throughout the country will be compelled to keep them company. The war has been an expensive business.

The drive for funds for the Salvation Army in this city will be managed by the Elks, and this means that the management will be in most competent hands. If the enthusiasm of the people matches that of this generous organization nothing further will be needed.

This paper is not in the habit of shouting "I told you so," but its readers cannot fail to recall that it predicted from the start that the country would go "over the top" on the Victory Loan drive just as it has done.

The Germans pronounced the peace terms a "verdict of death." It is a verdict of death to the ambitions that led Germany to begin the war, and was so intended to be.

News of the resignation of the Industrial Board of the Department of Commerce is welcome. It is time for the business of the country to be getting back upon its own feet.

It is believed in Washington that President Wilson will not return until the treaty is signed. And even at that he may be home sooner than expected.

The price of milk in Lowell, Mass., has dropped two cents a quart. That sounds good until we are informed that the present price is 14 cents.

DYNAMITE PLOT AGAIN DISCOVERED

Lawrence, Mass., May 15.—A quantity of dynamite buried under the dirt, with fuses leading across the street car tracks was found by the police near Cook's Corner, Methuen, early today. Cars from Haverhill with workers for the textile mills here, where a strike has been in progress for more than three months, pass over the Cook's Corner route and the first car was due a short time after the discovery of the explosive. A few hours previously a work car carrying only the motorman and conductor was wrecked by an explosion in another section of Methuen. This led the police to examine the tracks throughout the city with the result that dynamite was found near Cook's Corner.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Capt. Almy Relieved
 Capt. A. C. Almy, retired, who has been on duty at the local yard as aide to the commandant since the war was relieved today and goes back to the retired status. He will be succeeded by Comdr. J. H. Sypher, son-in-law of Rear Admiral Cronwell, retired. Comdr. Sypher is no stranger to the Portsmouth yard as he was formerly stationed here in connection with his labor employment board and other duties in the Administration building. He is just back from foreign duty and was on waiting orders. The departure of Captain Almy is much regretted by the official force as well as every civilian employee who knew him.

He was a great admirer of Portsmouth and has always been ready in his co-operation on anything for the benefit of the city and the naval station. It was always a pleasure to meet him, and everyone whether a workman or an officer, always found him ready with a square deal on every occasion in his dealings with his fellowmen.

Comfort Due Here May 20.
 The department has decided to send the hospital ship Comfort here for repairs, alterations and docking. The ship will arrive on or about May 20. Her stay here will depend on the estimate of work to be made by the Industrial Department when she lies up at the dock.

Want Regulars at Sea
 Orders from the department through Admiral Dunn, commanding the First Naval District to send all men of the regular navy attached to the revolving ship Southern to sea. The order was so sweeping that it would practically put the ship out of commission and when the commanding officer of the ship made that known the order was revoked. However, this applies to enlisted men in the commissary store, supply department and paymaster's of auxiliary and the plan is to fill their places with yeomen (P) as far as possible if any of the regular men make the sea duty.

NET IS CLOSE ABOUT BARRE STRANGLER

Barre Vt., May 15.—Officials investigating the brutal murder of Mrs. Harry B. Broadwell declared last night that only the absence of Atty.-Gen. Archibald from the city has prevented the arrest of a person suspected of being the murderer.

Through the painstaking trailing of State Attorney Davis, Chief of Police Mitchell, Detective James H. Wood and others, it is claimed that a mass of circumstantial evidence has been built up around this suspect.

On the return of the attorney general, this evidence will be submitted and it is almost a certainty the arrest will be made. Much of the detective work on the case has been concentrated on the part this suspect played in the tragedy and the evidence that implicate him as the stranger is regarded as conclusive.

In the mean time the three material witnesses held in connection with the case are still confined to the Hotel Brue. Mrs. Belle Parker, one of the trio, has apparently suffered a nervous breakdown as a nurse is her constant companion. The others, Gabrielle Bianchi and George Long, show little concern over the case.

The price of coal is 75 per cent determined by wages. The wage agreement at the mines continues until April 1, 1920. The Fuel Administration reports that 35 per cent of the mines cannot make any money at the present mine prices. In view of this, how can coal be cheaper this year?

THE VICTORY LOAN WENT OVER—HELP THE SALVATION ARMY

Here is high praise for the Salvation Army, lauded from a major general who says:

"High praise of the war work of the Salvation Army, especially of the aid which its workers gave in feeding the men of this division under extraordinary conditions of warfare, is contained in a letter from Major General Robert Alexander, commander of the 77th division, received yesterday by Brigadier-General Cornelius Vanderbilt, chairman of the Greater New York Committee in the $13,000,000 Home Service Fund Campaign which the Salvation Army will conduct in the week of May 13-26.

General Alexander writes: "On behalf of the 77th Division, I want to thank you for the wonderful work that the Salvation Army has done for the men of this Division.

"While stationary warfare existed, canteens were established by your organization where doughnuts and oranges were freely given out, but when the war of movement commenced, your workers were constantly assisting by providing for the men, this being extremely difficult owing to the nature of the terrain.

"During the trying period while the men were waiting to be sent to this country, canteens were once more established and great assistance given by your workers. "Thanking you again for what you have done for this Division, I am, "Yours very sincerely, "ROBERT ALEXANDER, "Major-General, U. S. A., Commanding 77th Division."

LOCAL ARMY TO BENEFIT FROM DRIVE

Out of the quota of $10,000 set for this city in the Salvation Army drive, the sum of $397.50 will be for the local work. This budget has been made up by the Elks committee and it will provide for all of the expenses of the local army and in addition make a payment of $100 on the honor on State street, now owned by the city, but leased to the Army at a nominal rental and with the option of purchase.

This budget will include the back bills owned by the organization. The money will be used exclusively for the local organization and not for any particular officer. The money will be placed in the hands of a board of trustees consisting of Messrs. Charles J. Sullivan, John K. Bates and William J. Condon, and it will be paid out monthly as per rate in the budget. If the present captain of the army goes away his successor will be provided with the running expense in the same way as long as the funds last.

After the Elks general committee met on Wednesday evening and all of the details of the drive were gone over, with the usual Elks thoroughness. The quota was divided up and each section assigned a certain sum. The Navy Yard, the Atlantic Ship Yard, the other industries, the business section and the residential section. They will start the drive on Sunday night at the mass meeting and begin the actual work of collecting on Monday and make a business of it the entire week until everybody has had an opportunity to give to this worthy cause.

WHAT ED. HARMON THINKS OF "MICKEY"

Famous Author, H. C. Witwer, Writes About Great Production "Mickey"

At a private showing of the famous photoplay "Mickey" which will be shown at the Colonial Theatre next week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Mr. H. C. Witwer, the brilliant and witty author, made a remark that afterwards materialized in a letter as memorable as his famous "Hush" and "Boches" stories.

"Joe ought to know about this" he said.

And the following week this characteristic letter was received:

A Atlantic Port—
By the name of New York.

Dear Joe—
Well, Joe, I have just seen a movie which makes them other pictures look like osteopath views, or whatever they call them things you look at with a magnifying glass. This here is some picture, Joe, I'll tell the world, and the name of it is Mickey. No and Jeanne went to see it on account of not being able to get seats for the Fifth Avenue Library, and maybe we ain't glad, Joe. I'll say we are, only Jeanne, she's afraid that feller will come and collect, and maybe she's right, Joe, because in this here hunk you never could get a thing for nothing except we saw this for nothing. Well, Joe, they is more action in this thing than they was at the battle of the Marne, and they ain't a dull minute from the time Mickey makes her first grin at the audience till she starts on her honeymoon and the like, with the handsome and good-looking young hero. Mabel Normandy is Mickey, and she is some dame, believe me! Joe, she can swim, ride, scrap, dance, and oh, boy, how she can love! Joe, if I wasn't in the war, I would rather be in the movies, especially one with Mabel Normandy in it. If the leader man in Mickey gets any wages it is a outrage, because he does nothing but make love to Mabel Normandy from start to finish, and if I could do that I would pay the people which made the picture.

Well, Joe, I can't tell you all about this movie, because then you would save the money, and not go when they play it where you are, but I will say that they is the greatest movie ever, for instance in it I ever seen. It is the same as the good thing, only better, and I bet the guy next to me fifty bucks on Mickey a place, Joe. Well, Joe, Mickey win it, pulled up, and this big stuff wouldn't pay off because he says it's only a movie, and he don't think the others was right. Joe, if it hadn't been for Jeanne I would of been hunked in there, but he was big and tough, anyway, Joe, and they is times when discretion is better than a punch in the nose. Joe, they is also a fight in this picture between the hero and the villain which would make the war look like a game of bean bag. Joe, these guys fights with everything but axes, and wrecks a house don't it, whilst Mickey is hanging, by her nubs from the roof. Well, Joe, I got so excited they was as many people looking at me as at the picture, and Jeanne gets sore and says if I am so stuck on Mabel Normandy what did I get married for. Well, Joe, with that they was nothing for me to do but shut up, and anyway, they was some guys in back of me invited me to do the same, because they claimed they come to see Mickey, and not to hear me.

Joe, the first time you get a furlow go and see this here picture because Mickey is the greatest thing that was ever thrown on a screen, and the rest of them is just plain movies.

Yours truly,
ED. HARMON,
(The Kaiser's nemesis.)

OBSERVES EVENT

Circle Celebrates Its 24th Anniversary.

Constitution Circle, U. of E., celebrated its twenty-fourth anniversary Wednesday evening at Moose hall and more than a hundred members were present to enjoy the occasion.

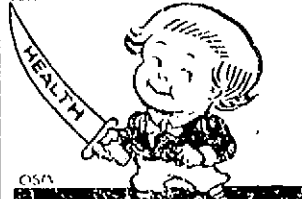

A fine banquet gave pleasant interest to the occasion, the caterer being A. W. Simpson of Dover. The menu served was: roast beef, cold roast turkey, cold roast chicken, hot mashed potato, shrimp salad, rolls, strawberry shortcake, ice cream and coffee.

There was an abundance of sociability and good cheer at the table and all enjoyed the fine banquet and the meeting and greeting of long members.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing and at a late hour the gathering broke up, the consensus of opinion being that the twenty-fourth anniversary was fittingly celebrated. The able committee in charge deserves much praise for the success of the affair.

Constitution Circle is in a flourish.
